

{Sung to the tune of "The Wheels on the Bus"}

The library has books, books, books

Books, books, books

Books, books, books

The library has books, books, books

And fun computers.

Librarians say shush, shush, shush

Shush, shush, shush

Shush, shush, shush

Librarians say shush, shush, shush

All day long.

And they plan cool activities

Activities, Activities

And they plan cool activities

And make cool crafts for the kids

The Cromaine Library was named after two guys

After two guys

After two guys

The library was named after two guys

Who build most of Hartland.

That is why I'm singing about them.

The people at the library love to read

Love to read

Love to read

The people at the library love to read

And they check out books.

I love to read narwal books

Narwal books

Narwal books

I love to read narwal books

Even though Ive only read one.

The computers are so great with all the games

All the games

All the games

The computers are so great with all the games.

Yeahhh I love them.
