How "Jaws" Fits into The Horror Movie Formula

March 28, 29 or 30th! Enter our 2017 Livingston Reads presentation on Horror Films featuring big, scary animals as part of 2017 Livingston Reads. Check out the Friends Book Sale, get a plush Peep toy and gift card. May 20, from 9:00 to 10:30 am. Register – Village.

Create a book-inspired diorama using the elements of art through video, discussion and hands-on projects. Kids ages 6 – 12. The Village, Wednesday, May 3, 6:30 pm.

Why such a hullabaloo for the 90th? Public libraries have become the dynamic places they are today because of Cromaine’s, that waiting until we’re 100 in 2027, we might have become such dynamic places, including Hartland’s Cromaine. Students ages 12 and younger, Students ages 13 through 18. Students ages 13 through 18, 404-2676, or email: info@hcr.org. There will be cash prizes. Photos will be displayed at the library and shared on Cromaine’s digital presentations as part of the anniversary celebrations.

EVENT CALENDAR
A three week exploration of the elements of art includes a visit from the Library Director, steering through the history of the Hartland Area Project, a tour of the Crouse Family Museum, a walk through the historic Village.

FRIENDS OF CROMAINE FRIENDS BOOK SALE:

March 4, 1927, a cornerstone was laid that began the building of Cromaine Library. Beginning this month, 90 years later, Cromaine Library celebrates twice as much to share and look at from those short ten years. This is an excellent time to look back and remember all of the people to which this community and Cromaine have grown together! Join us!
